Annual Conference of Safety Auditors

The safety auditor conference was successfully held on 29th Oct 2005 at Miramar Hotel jointly organized by SASA, HKRSAA and HKSOSA. There were about 120 participants joint the conference. Mr. Fred Ding, JP, Deputy Commissioner for Labour, officiated the opening ceremony.

Four keynote speakers, Mr. Pang Kwok Lam, Ms. Martha Mc Dougall, Dr. Y.Y. Wong and Mr. Chris C.Y. Tsang shared their valuable views and experiences on their topics in relation to safety audit with the participants. Participants were most interested with the topics and actively asked questions in the open forum, as well as discussing the topics during the buffet lunch. All participants were distributed with a CPD certificate. Members can view the power points of the presentation in our webpage www.sasa.org.hk under <Current Events>.

Reporting Writing skills for Safety Auditors (2nd Intake)

SASA have reviewed the feedback of the 1st intake of the "Reporting Writing Skill for Safety Auditors". SASA will enhance the course contents by adding more lecturers in the 2nd intake, so as to enrich the reporting writing skill to the students.

The Occupational Safety and Health Council has granted 18 CPD points under the ISAS scheme for students who have completed this CEF approved course.

The 2nd intake is expected to started in early 2006. Date of enrollement will be announced soon.
