10th Anniversary of SASA

As announced in Circular 50, a family camp will be held after the AGM cocktail on 12th August 2006. Furthermore, SASA plans to issue a 10th anniversary memorial publication. The publication will introduce all aspects in relation to the history of SASA in the last decade, development of Safety Auditing in Hong Kong and the future of the safety auditing profession

The 10th anniversary journal will be sent to all members in June 2006. SASA is now seeking sponsors and contributors of article. Members who want to contribute or post advertisement are welcome. Also, members are welcome to express their view by sending your opinion via info@sasa.org.hk.

SASA Annual Dinner 2006

SASA will organize the 10th annual dinner with the members on 25th February 2006 (Saturday). All members are cordially invited to participate in this annual gathering to make new friends and to share your view and experience amongst the members.

As usual, gathering venue and menu are modest and the dinner will be held in Ocean Super Seafood Restaurant, 3/F, Jordan Road, Kowloon. Participation fee for member is only $200 and non-member $250. This year, our Annual Dinner aims to enhance the fellowship of members. The programme events include Lucky Draw, Table prizes and Games. A special Grand prize is waiting for you.

Report Writing skills for Safety Auditors (2nd Intake)

Following the success of the 1st intake, SASA has planned to launch the enhanced 2nd intake of the "Reporting Writing Skill for Safety Auditors" in March 2006. SASA have arranged 2 additional lecturers who are experts in English in different aspects, to enrich the knowledge of the participants.

This course is CEF approved and 18 CPD granted from the Occupational Safety and Health Council. Also, It is a chance for members to foster knowledge and skills as well as to accumulate adequate CPD for maintenance of registration as RSO.

Details of course enrolment will be announced soon. Keep watching.
