

Annual General Meeting 2008

2008 Annual General Meeting was successfully launched in Miramar Hotel in the evening on 25th July 2008 (Friday). There were about 50 participants, including members and guests.

Honorably, Guest speaker Dr. Henry K.H. Kwok was invited from the Hospital Authority. He briefly introduced the "Injury on Duty Management (Hospital Authority Occupation Medicine Perspectives)" to all participants. The topic was very interesting. After the talk, CPD certificate was issued to all attendances.

After having delivered a detailed AGM report by Dr. Y.Y. Wong, President, Mr. Steve Chan, Vice-President & Mr. Victor Chan, Honor Treasurer, Dr. Y.Y. Wong announced that Mr. Steve Chan, Vice-President will act as President of SASA starting from 25th July 2008. Gratefully, Dr. Y.Y. Wong will continue devote his professionalism to the society as EC member.

After the AGM, all participants enjoy a delicious buffet dinner and chat freely. The atmosphere was festive and friendly.

SHARP Program

During the AGM, Dr. Y.Y. Wong reported that there were 10 Registered Safety Auditors participated the Sharp Program. In order to further promote a qualitative self-regulating system among safety auditors in H.K.

SASA & HKRSSA was agreed to waive the deposit of HK$2,000 to all qualified applicants (RSA) who join the scheme within promotion period from 1st May 2008 to 31st October 2008.

All new applicants only need to pay the cost of HK$500, which covers the fee of the steel seal, SHARP cover pages and administrative fee.

Let's seize on the offer of free deposit and upgrade your profession as SHARP Auditor!
